Folklife, History and the Arts: A Professional Development Seminar sponsored by the KY Folklife Program, the KY Historical Society, and the KY Arts Council

REGISTRATION FORM

This year the Folklife Festival will include a new component, a professional development seminar for educators who want to enhance their background understanding of folk arts, discover resources for including folk arts in the curriculum, and learn classroom-ready activities to begin integrating folk arts into Arts and Humanities, Social Studies and across the curriculum. Each participant will be able to select from a menu of opportunities including hands-on workshops in music, dance, drama, visual arts, and writing plus "field trips" into the festival to meet and learn from folk artists. A theme of the Folklife Festival this year is immigration, so teachers can select activities that focus on a diversity of cultural groups. This PD is being presented in collaboration with the Kentucky Historical Society and we will also have access to the resources of the Thomas Clark History Center, so we will include sessions on Arts and Humanities in Colonial America, American history, and Kentucky history. There will be one-day (6-8 hours) and two-day (12-16 hours) options. Once your registration is confirmed, you will be contacted by Judy Sizemore, PD Coordinator, by e-mail to develop your personal PD plan.

Price for one day: $ 60
Price for two days: $ 110
